OLD ENGLAND.

By ARGUS CENTOCULI, Inſpector-General of Great-Britain.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1748. [N°. 243.]

To the AUTHOR, &c.

SIR,

Audite, O Proceres! —— VIRG.

ONE has need of a Bronſonian Front, who attempts to impoſe his Gallimawfry of Nonſenſe upon an injured Nation as Conſiderations. Our Author's Pamphlet had been more applicably intitled, A Miniſterial Maſque for the Indefinitive Treaty, &c. He appears, with all his Fallacy, to be exceedingly gravel'd when he comes to ſpeak of our own Concerns in his high prais'd Treaty, where he ſlubbers them over in a very ſlovenly, as well as ſuperficial, Manner. He deals by the diſappointed Nation, as an old Gran'am would by a cozened Boy: He plays the Lullaby in Character upon us, and, like the looby Boy, we are to believe what we have loſt will come again; and what mighty Things we are to expect from the hocus-pocus Dexterity of this ſame ſomething or this nothing of a Ty. Our Concerns, ſays he, will receive all the Benefit from the Clauſes in the Definitive Treaty RELATING to them, that could REASONABLY be expected. Had he, in Pity to our Inattention, marked out to us theſe ſame relating Clauſes, he had done well, as neither myſelf, nor any other I have converſed with on this Occaſion, can find out any ſuch Clauſes in the printed Treaty. But, lo! the Guaranty of the Succeſſion is confirmed in the CLEAREST Terms! Will this Trifler preſume to impoſe a Matter of Courſe upon us, as a Piece of Merit? Has not this been a common Clauſe in every Treaty of Peace from the Revolution down to this Time? Did we go to War, and ſpend our Millions upon Millions for this? This! which was ſufficiently guarantied by our own Laws, by our Hearts and our Minds before! never queſtioned but by a few Deſperadoes at home, nor ſeriouſly impeached from abroad. France, 'tis true, did ſend a young Adventurer among us, but it was with no other View than to divert our Arms and Attention from interrupting the Courſe of her Victories in Flanders.

I can't forbear conſidering the boaſted Clauſe of Guaranty as the Effect of officious Impertinence, as I apprehend it was wholly needleſs in this laſt Treaty, nay, 'twas rather a kind of Weakning than a Strengthning to the S*n, as bringing the Validity of our Laws in Doubt, and ſubmitting them to the Sanction of foreign Powers and their Guaranty. Have we not lately ſhewn our ſincere Attachment to the Succeſſion, in the Day of Royal Diſtreſs and Embarraſſment? Have we not, by our Purſes, our Arms, and our Blood, bravely, nobly, and moſt effectually convinced the aſtoniſhed World that his Majeſty was King of our Hearts, and that he and his illuſtrious Family were ſo well eſtabliſhed there, that all Efforts againſt them would be in vain? And ſhall the Brothers now preſume to exult in an imagined Merit, and ſay, by the Mouth of their Proſtitute, with Wolſeian Arrogance, we have eſtabliſhed the Succeſſion! our Ballad has done it in the cleareſt Terms! Preſumptuous Inſult! But what mighty Import is there in the Word cleareſt? For even allowing them the utmoſt Merit of their tinſel Work, it is no more than a bare Renewal of the 5th Article in the Quadruple Alliance of 1718, without one ſingle additional Word. Where then are our Author's cleareſt Terms? What a poor Inſincerity is this?

But ſurely nothing can equal his avering, that our Claims in reſpect to Commerce are as well and as far adjuſted with the Court of Spain, as it was proper or convenient they ſhould be by a general Peace. Among all the Sarcaſms, which, as he complains ſo often, have been thrown by Writers againſt his Patrons, none can come up to this! for it amounts to a fair Acknowledgment, that tho' our commercial Claims ought to have been principally adjuſted, yet not a ſingle Article has been beſtow'd upon them thro' all this good Chriſtian Treaty of Peace, and ſo the Truth is. I would fain entreat my Reader to conſider minutely what this inconſiderate Writer has above advanced, and ſee if he can find any thing tending to it in the printed Treaty; for I can't, with all my Attention engaged. As it is hardly poſſible that the moſt hardened and inured Pen to Lying, could be tempted to write down deliberately a Falſity ſo obvious to be detected, I can't forbear concluding that he meant nothing elſe than to banter the Brothers and their ſupple Nr, for their Inattention to this important Part of our Britiſh Concerns.

As a Reparation of Injuries and Regulation of Commerce were the principal Object of our going to War with Spain, an Adjuſtment of our Claims, in reſpect thereof, ought to have been the principal Object of a Peace with that Nation. But it ſeems, that, according to our Panegyriſt, what was proper and convenient to be done by a general Peace, is doing nothing at all! Can he ſhew any thing done, or the leaſt Foundation provided for doing any thing? No! then it is plain nothing was thought proper or convenient to be done. What is a general Peace for, but to adjuſt Rights in Diſpute? This Peace is ſaid to be definitive; and yet our Author ſays, We have as good a Title as we poſſibly can have, that our RIGHTS ſhall be made good to us by the Court of Madrid, and that the Regulation of them is left to a ſubſequent Negociation. What a Trifler is this! How he bandies Words againſt Argument, and concludes againſt himſelf? While he aſſerts the Treaty is Definitive, he mentions, in the very ſame Breath, a ſubſequent Negociation, tho' without the leaſt Foundation. I muſt take Part with him on his firſt Aſſertion againſt himſelf as to the laſt, for I am afraid the Treaty is really definitive, ſince there is nothing mentioned or even implied in it, to ground any Pretence for a ſubſequent Negociation. Our Author ſeems to be conſcious of the Inſufficiency of this Treaty, as to our Commerce; and therefore is for amuſing us with a ſubſequent one in the Clouds. I think we are abſolutely precluded by it of ever bringing our Demands upon the Carpet again. Spain will undoubtedly inſiſt upon it as Definitive, and plead it in Bar of all our paſt Claims, which, if we had meant to inſiſt upon, ought to have been provided for in expreſs Terms.

Let us ſuppoſe two Perſons, after worrying one another in an indefinitive Suit in Chancery, refer the Matters in Controverſy to Arbitration, and that a final Award, on hearing the Parties, is duly ſigned and ſealed. I need not obſerve that the Words final and definitive are ſynonimous. This Award ſhall bind the Parties for ever, and neither of them ſhall afterwards pretend to a Right of Review. It will be in vain for either to ſay, that he expected ſuch and ſuch Particulars were to be conſidered in futuro. No; he is bound faſt, and muſt abide by the Award as wholly concluſive, unleſs he can ſhew ſome Fraud or Corruption in the Matter. This, I think I may venture to ſay, is Law; I ſpeak it however (in the Phraſe of our Lawyers) under Favour and with humble Submiſſion.

I muſt ſubmit to the Civilians, whether the ſame Meaſure is not concluſive between Nation and Nation. A definitive Treaty of Peace appears in the ſame Light as to public Affairs, as an Award in our private Concerns: 'Tis irreparable, and there is no way to cure it but by Arms. I have a better Opinion of our Nr's Abilities, than to impute the Omiſſion of adjuſting our mercantile Demands, or making a proper Proviſion for refering them to a future Negociation, to his Charge. I muſt therefore conclude he obey'd Inſtructions, and that the Intereſts of our ſturdy Beggars in the City met with very little Conſideration at a certain polite End of the Town. In vain may they plead that they compoſe the moſt uſeful Part of the good Subjects of *G*t Bn*, and that the great Wealth which diſtinguiſhes this Nation from others, derives from their Induſtry and Application; that the ſuperior Figure which our naval Force makes upon the Ocean, is chiefly owing to them; that the Produce of our Lands would remain a Drug upon our Hands, were it not for their commercial Intercourſe abroad; that without them we could not ſubſiſt as a free People, nor reſiſt the Power of the firſt Invader, but ſubmit as our Anceſtors did to the Danes and the Normans, when naval Commerce was in it's Infancy. I ſay, in vain may theſe Merchants plead their Merits: It can't be forgot, that they balk'd the famous Exciſe Scheme, and were the very Cauſe of the War with Spain, and conſequently of the Removal of Leviathan from the Seat of Corruption, which coſt ſome People ſo much Pains and Labour to regain, as well at the Expence of the Pg*t*ve of the *wn, as of the Pl*ge of the S*bj*ct; both which I apprehend have been grievouſly impaired to ſerve the Purpoſes of a Faction compoſed of Contrarieties, ſtill ſubſiſting and often in Agitation. Let theſe Merchants then ſeek a Remedy where they can find it.

As wiſely as he would have us believe this Treaty of Peace was conducted, he owns there are ſome Objections that may be made to it, with ſome Appearance of Reaſon and Argument. He might as well have ſaid had been inſtead of may be made, as thoſe very Objections appear to be the ſame as we have all ſeen, ſome Time ſince, in your Paper. The firſt is, That no Part of the Negociation had been communicated to Parliament. Among a Parcel of very fooliſh Apologies for this great Indignity thrown upon the Pnt, then actually ſitting, he inſinuates that the Senſe of this high Body might be taken by Hints from them. What he means by this is hardly to be conceived, unleſs he thinks that ſome leading Members may be cloſetted, as in the corrupt Days of Leviathan, and documented by a Miniſter into his pernicious Meaſures. As well he might have ſaid, that the Senſe of Parliament might be taken by Hints ſent up by the Members from their reſpective Country Seats, as at their Meeting at Weſtminſter. I always underſtood, that the Senſe of Parliament could not be taken in any other Manner than by free Debate and Vote in their collective Capacity: To attempt it otherwiſe would be illegal and highly derogatory of the Honour of Parliament, and, inſtead of the Senſe of Parliament, it would be only the Senſe of ſome favourite Members of it, ſince it is notorious, a Miniſter never conſulted or took a Hint from any Member who was not of his Faction.

It looks as if our Mrs had Reaſon to diſtruſt the p*nt with the Grounds of their Negociation. Probably, had they done their Duty in taking Parliamentary Advice, we ſhould not have had this Treaty to complain of. It would have been but decent, if our Mrs had condeſcended to have been leſs ſelf ſufficient, and taken the Opinion of the great Council of the Nation, then convened in their public Capacity for the Service of the Nation. Whether the Neglect of this is to be conſidered as an Inſtance of a high Affront and Diſreſpect to both Hs, is beſt known to themſelves; but I think that the Nation has Reaſon to reſent ſo flagrant a C*t*pt of their R*p*l*t*es, at ſo critical a Juncture. But our Author vindicates this Omiſſion, and ſays, The Advice of Parliament would have been inconſiſtent, and that, however unprecedented the Negociation might be, it was from thence, and thence only, that it's Succeſs was derived. I am entirely of his Opinion as to the Cauſe of Succeſs, which, to the Joy of the Nation, had undoubtedly never been, had the Direction of the Parliament been taken. But to aſſert that the Succeſs is owing to the not conſulting the Parliament, is peculiar to a Miniſterialing, ſecure of Impunity, alone.

The next reaſonable Objection he admits of, is the ſending back the Ruſſians. It was at the very Juncture they became uſeful, and by whoſe Aſſiſtance we could have compelled the Enemy into our own Terms. But you have already diſcuſs'd this Point ſo fully in ſome former Papers, as well as the Importance of Gibraltar and the Rite of Dunkirk, that you have left me nothing to add: However let me obſerve, that if the March of the Ruſſians (as our Author admits) was the Cauſe of forcing the Enemy to a Peace, how much more glorious and effectual might that Peace be, if it had been obtained by the Conjunction of their Arms with our own in the Field? Probably, we might then have ſeen an Article wholly Britiſh in the Treaty of Peace; the Poſſeſſion of Gibraltar and Minorca in expreſs Terms confirmed to us; our commercial Claims expreſsly and ſatisfactorily adjuſted; the Houſe of Bourbon in every Branch of it abridged, not enlarged; France driven into her ancient Boundaries; Cape Breton left in our Poſſeſſion, as Gibraltar, Portmahon, and other Places, were by the Tory Peace of Utrecht, towards indemnifying Great Britain of her vaſt Expences in the War.

To purſue this trifling Writer further would be treſpaſſing too far on the Patience of your Readers and your Indulgence: I ſhall therefore take my Leave of him, and conclude with obſerving, that, as of all the Treaties that have ever been negociated, this laſt is the w*ſt; ſo, of all the miniſterial Triflers of the Pen that I have ever read, this Conſiderator is the moſt trifling; his Pamphlet a very Trifle like the definitive Subject of it; while the Rights and Properties of the Subjects of the good King, who is ſtiled the KING OF FRANCE, &c. have been trifled away by trifling Hands and trifling Heads.

SIR,

Your humble Servant,

PHILO-PATRIA.

LONDON.

Thurſday his Majeſty went to the Houſe of Peers, with the uſual State, attended by the Lord of the Bed-chamber in Waiting, and gave the Royal Aſſent to the Bill for continuing the Duties on Malt, Mum, Cyder, and Perry, in that Part of Great Britain called England; and for granting to his Majeſty certain Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder, and Perry, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, for the Service of the Year 1749.

And the Hon. the Houſe of Commons to Tueſday the 10th of the ſame Month.

Mr. Joſeph Wilmore, Enſign in Lieutenant General Wolfe's Regiment, is appointed a Captain and Agent in the ſaid Regiment.

Laſt Week died, at Weſton Hall in Cambridgeſhire, Nicholas Barton, Eſq; aged 96 Years who had ſerved the Office of High Sheriff in the Year 1702, and had been a Juſtice of the Peace 60 Years.

We are aſſured, that the Dreſſes are actually making for the Princes and Princeſſes, Sons and Daughters of the Prince and Princeſs of Wales, and ſome other young Nobility of the firſt Rank, in which they are to play the Tragedy of Cato, before his Majeſty and the Family, ſoon after the Holidays.

Wedneſday ſe'nnight his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle was unanimouſly elected, in a very full Senate, Chancellor of the Univerſity of Cambridge, in the room of the late Duke of Somerſet.

Tueſday at the Meeting of the Hon. Committee at Guildhall, appointed for enquiring into the Laws relating to Hawkers and Pedlars, they came to a Reſolution to proſecute all Hawkers ſelling Wares within the City or Liberties of the ſame, thongh they ſhould appear to have Licences.

Thurſday arrived a Mail from Liſbon, by which there is the agreeable News, that the Prince of Wales, Harry, from Bengal, was arrived there.

Laſt Saturday the Secretary of War gave Orders for carrying over Serjeant Beven to Holland, by Order of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, to be tried there by a Court Martial; and accordingly eight Men were draughted out of the Second Regiment of Foot Guards to guard him thither, who ſet out on Tueſday Morning. This Beven was a Serjeant in the Second Regiment of Foot Gnards, and deſerted at the Battle of Val to the French; and, ſome Time after, deſerted from the French, with ſeveral French Soldiers, to the Dutch, who obtained him a Pardon from the Duke; and being well verſed in the Language, the States gave him the Command of a Free Company; ſoon after he deſerted a ſecond time to the French, and, on the Ceſſation of Hoſtilities, he came to England, and was taken at Twickenham.

Laſt Wedneſday Night ſeveral Perſons were robbed by a Gang of Fellows at the End of Bury-King-Lane, on the Bow Road, of their Watches, Money, &c.

Sunday Evening Mr. Collier, a Gentleman belonging to the Treaſury, was attacked by a ſingle Highwayman on Saliſbury Plain, near Stonehenge, who robbed him of upwards of twenty Pounds and his Watch.

Wedneſday ſe'nnight about One o'Clock at Noon, Miſs Furley, Daughter of John Furley, Eſq; an eminent Dutch Merchant of this City, on her Return in her Chariot from Rumford Market to her Father's Houſe at Collyers, near Dagenham, was ſtopped near Whalebone on this ſide Rumford by a ſingle Highwayman, indifferently mounted, who robb'd her of Five Guineas in Gold, and ſome Silver, and civily wiſhed her well home. And on Thurſday the Robber, whoſe Name is John Green, was taken and commited to Woodſtreet Compter.

On Sunday Night laſt as Mr. Seaman, a Glover was coming along Old-ſtreet-Road, he was attacked near the Pound by two Footpads, one of whom held a Piſtol to his Breſt, while the other robbed him of his Hat and Money; after which they puſhed him down, and made off towards the Fox and Gooſe with their Booty.

On Saturday Night about ten o'Clock, two Maid Servants belonging to Mr. Fiſt, a Tallow Chandler neat St. Saviour's Church, Southwark, were attacked at Foul Lane End, near Mr. Fiſt's Houſe, by a Fellow who robbed them of three Shillings, and a Handkerchief; but one of the Maids ran after the Fellow, and ſeized him by the Collar, held him till Aſſiſtance came who carried him before Juſtice Clark, by whom he was committed to the New Jail.

On Saturday Night laſt, about ſeven o'Clock, a Fellow went into Mrs. Wilſon's Shop, a Hoſier's in King Steeet, Covent Garden, aſking for a Pair of fine Hoſe; whereupon the Journeyman took down ſeveral Papers to the Amount of twenty or thirty Pair: which the Fellow ſeeing took them in his Arms and walked off: The Servant, who went to purſue him, was ſtopped at the Door by Five of the Gang who ordered him to go quietly into his Shop, or it would be worſe for him. The Stockings were worth upwards of Seven Pounds.

Wedneſday one Patrick Keiley, who lived in the Coal Yard near Drury Lane was committed to Clerkenwell Bridewell by Francis Hole, Eſq; on the Oath of Darby Lacy, for aſſaulting him in the Street laſt Friday Night, putting him in Fear of his Life, and robbing him of three Guineas and a Half in Gold. He is a deſperate and reſolute Fellow, and was with the greateſt Difficulty ſecured by the timely Aſſiſtance of one Stephen Donnow. He likewiſe ſtands committed by the ſame Gentleman for extorting divers Sums of Money.

A few Days ago a Sailor lately diſcharged from his Majeſty's Ship the Feverſham, being at a Houſe of bad Repute near Norton Falgate, where he had lodged ſeveral Nights before, and being greatly in Liquor, behaved in ſo outrageous a manner, that he was tied down in his Bed, where he was found dead next Morning. 'Tis ſuppos'd he was taken with a Fit of Vomitting, but being confined, was ſuffocated.

By Letters from divers Parts of England, eſpecially along the Sea Coaſt, we have repeated Accounts of the great Damage done by the violent Storm which happened Yeſterday ſe'nnight; ſeveral Maſts, and other Parts of Ships, having been ſeen on the Coaſts of Kent, and Suſſex.

A very large Barn belonging to the Parſonage of Chiſlehurſt in Kent, was blown down and ſhattered to Pieces, and the Parſonage Houſe itſelf and Outhouſes greatly damaged, by the late High Wind; what makes it the more unfortunate, is, about fourteen Years ago the then Parſonage Houſe ſuffered ſo extremely by a late Hurricane, that the preſent Incumbent was forced to build a new one entirely at his own Expences

A Gardener's Houſe in Turnham-Green was alſo blown down by the Violence of the Storm, and the Man and his Wife were ſome Time under the Ruins; but ſeveral People running ſoon to their Aſſiſtance, they were got out, and very litrle hurt.

Extract of a Letter from Ramſgate dated Dec. 17.

" Yeſterday Morning the Wind came to the S. by E. and blew a terrible hard Gale, which continued till Six o'Clock in the Evening on that Point; and about Eleven the Baſſnet, Leſley, laden with Corn came aſhore a little to the Southward of Sandwich-Haven. The Maſter and Nineteen Men came aſhore in their Long Boat at our Port, and in three or four Hours the Ship went all to Pieces. About an Hour after came aſhore a Snow and a Sloop between this Place and Pigwell, Six Men belonging to the Snow were drowned. About two o'Clock two Sloops came into our Pier, and about Six Captain Bayley, Roger Bailey, and another large Ship, came aſhore a little to the Northward of our Pier: A Snow Sunk near Broad Stairs. We ſaw ſeveral Ships drove to Sea. We have an Account of two Ships foundering at Anchor in the Downs; and two or thre others overſet. There is one with her Enſign out, which I take to be the Empreſs."

According to a Private Letter from Holland, the Quarrel that happened at Zutphen, between the Hanoverian Regiment of Midducht, and the Dutch Regiment of Barmania had like to have been very fatal. It is ſaid to have begun thus: Upon the coming in of the Hanoverian Regiment to that City, a Dutch Soldier offered his Hand to one of the Germans, adding this Complement, Welcome Comrade how do you do. The German gave him to underſtand that he was no Companion for a run away, upon which, firſt high Words, and then Blows enſued, and the Townſmen taking Part with their Countrymen; if the Officers of the Dutch Regiment had not interpoſed, the Germans overpowered by Numbers, might have fared very indifferently.

By private Letters from Paris we have an Account, that in Conſequence of his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty repeated Orders for putting the Laws in Execution againſt Gaming, ſeveral Perſons who kept Aſſemblies at their Houſes, have been apprehended and puniſhed. Among the reſt, one Madam Baillet, who kept a Biribi Table, for which ſhe was fined three thouſand Livres. The Table, and all its Utenſils, were likewiſe ſeized, as alſo the Sum of two thouſand five hundred and ninety four Livres, in Gold and Silver, which were upon it; the former were broken in Pieces publickly and burnt, and as for the Money, it was diſtributed among the Sick People in the Hoſpital of Hotel Dieu. Ten Gentlemen and four Ladies, who were diverting themſelves at the Table, were alſo ſeized and fined.

According to ſome Advices from Paris, the Grand Maſter of Malta refuſes to ſend to the Prince of Conti his Patent for the Poſt of Grand Prior of France, becauſe the Prince refuſes to conform to the Statues of the Order in the Articles of Vows and Caravans.

From the Paris A la-main, Dec. 22.

" The King has given one of the Iſlands of Martinico to Count Saxe; with the Sovereign Power to him and his Heirs for ever, The King juſt publiſhed five Edicts relating to the Reduction of the Army."

COUNTRY NEWS.

Newcaſtle, Dec. 17. We hear from Orton in the County of Weſtmorland, that on Monday the 5th Inſtant, a Woman unknown was found dead udon the Mountains near that Place, having wandered out of the Road, and periſhed by Hunger, Fatigue, and the Violence of the Weather. She had on a Straw Hat, and a ſhort red Cloack; her Feet were much Hurt with travelling, and ſhe looked very diſconſolate. When ſhe was found, ſhe had nothing in her Pocket but a Halfpenny, a Snuff Box, and a Piece of Soap. She was decencly interred at the Pariſh Expence.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

FRANCE.

Paris, Dec. 19. The young Pretender went Yeſterday very quietly from the Caſtle of Vincennes to Lyons, without either Guards or any Perſon to eſcorte him. Some few Days before had wrote a Letter to his Majeſty, conceived in ſuch Terms, as were in ſome Degree agreeable to his Situation; and in conſequence whereof, the proper Meaſures were taken for his Departure without any Buſtle or Diſturbance. Whether he intends to go from Lyons to Avignon, or whether he intends to take ſome other Route is not publickly known.

I am authoriſed by the Experience of many, whom I have ſerved with this Native Vegetable Acid, to recommend it as a much more pleaſant, ſafe, and efficacious Medicine than common TAR-WATER, as being free from it's naſeous Taſte, and noxious Qualities, yet poſſeſſed of all the Medical Virtues of Tar, which ariſe from a juſt Combination of the Eſſential Oil, and Native Sacharine Salt of the Vegetable, with the Univerſal Acid, and Elementary Water. It would look like Quackery to enumerate the ſeveral Caſes in which it has given Relief: I therefore content myſelfe, with obſerving, that it has done ſurprizing Service in Loſs of Appetite, bad Digeſtion, Cholics, Low Spiritedneſs, deſperate Conſumptions, Spitting of Blood, and other internal Hæmorrhages, Weakneſſes of both Sexes, inveterate Scurvies, and eſpecially in that ſort called the Sea Scurvy; of which I have lately had ſome very extraordinary Inſtances.

Two Tea Spoonfuls in a a moderate Glaſs of Water, make an agreeable Doſe, which may be taken twice a Day, Morning and Evening, or oftener; but beſt at ſome Diſtance from Meals. For CONFIRM'D VENEREAL LUES, and all the Relicks, or Remains of it in the Blood,

Which it infallibly eradicates, tho' of ever ſo long ſtanding, it having been long experienced to be the only ſafe and ſure Remedy for that hateful Diſtemper, that was ever known or diſcovered.

IT curing ſo eaſily, and inſenſibly, as to any Diſorder it gives, Confinement it requires, or Suſpicion it occations, that it is admired and recommended by all that have taken it, for it neither purges, vomits, nor ſalivates, but cures by it's alterative, de-obſtruent, antivenereal Qualities; inſomuch that Children, and the weakeſt and moſt tender or crazy-conſtitutioned People, may take it at all Times of the Year, and go about with it as if they had taken nothing, as may likewiſe thoſe who have been brought near the Grave, by repeating unſucceſsful Salivations, or other violent, or too frequent Purgations, or Vomits; for it reſtores as well as c'eans the Blood, of all the lurking poiſonous Taint and Mercury, tho' never ſo ſecretly lodg'd in the Body; wherefore let none of thoſe unfortunate Peopledeſpair, but try it, and they will be comfortably convinc d of the Truth of what is here ſaid of it.

Perſons who are pox'd to the laſt Degree, their whole Maſs of Blood being contaminated, and have been told nothing but a Salivation would cure them, tho' they labour under tormenting Pains in the Head, Limbs, or Joints; or have Breakings out of Scabs, Blotches, Boils, or Spots; or have Swellings, Nodes, Sores, or Ulcers, either in their Throat, Noſe, or elſewhere, with Wearineſs in their Limbs, Faintneſs and Weakneſs of the whole Body, &c. may entirely rely upon it, only that, according to the Degree of the Infection, they muſt take and continue it for a longer or ſhorter Time.

Such as have only ſome Relicks of the Diſeaſe, or but ſuſpect that their Blood has got a Smatch of the Taint, by ſome unuſual Uneaſineſſes about them, which they now and then feel, either from ill managed Claps, or other doubtful Cures ſhould never venture to marry if they are ſingle, or meddle with their Wives if married, till they are ſure they are ſafe, as they moſt certainly will be, upon their only taking a Pot or two of it.

It is alſo exceeding pleaſant to take, as well as delightful in it's effects; and thoroughly cleanſes, nouriſhes and reſtores, the fouleſt, moſt weakened, and worn-out Conſtitution.

Price 5 s. the Tin-pot, prepared only by the Doctor aboveſaid and left by him (Mr. Illed, Bookſeller, at the Golden Ball in Fleetſtreet, being dead) with Mr. Corbet, Bookſeller, at Addiſon's Head oppoſite St. Dunſtan's Church, Fleetſtreet; and at Mr. Cook's, under the Royal Exchange; where it may be had by any Meſſenger, ready ſealed up with Directions how to take it, by only asking for a 5 s. Pot of the PANACEA.

GLEETS and SEMINAL WEAKNESSES,

SO deſtructive to the Conſtitution, and ruinous not only to the unhappy Individual labouring under them, by draining away the Radical Moiſture or very Eſſence of Life, and inducing Conſumptions, Nervous Diſorders, &c. but to poſterity alſo, inaſmuch as thoſe afflicted with ſuch Gleetings, if not wholly diſabled, as very many are, from propagating their Species, are yet render'd incapable of begetting any other than puny, miſerable, and ſhort-liv'd Iſſue.

Theſe waſting Gleetings, occaſion'd by Self-pollution, exceſſive Venery, ſevere Purging for Venereal Injuries, or by violent Strains, &c. and which have been deem'd by almoſt all Phyſicians and Surgeons to be ſo very difficult to overcome, are now ſo certainly known to be directly, and in a manner at once perfectly cur'd by the Grand Reſtrictive Balſamick Electuary, that no one, how bad ſoever, need deſpair of being entirely ſet to Rights by it in a few Days.

It is from this its moſt extraordinary Efficacy, that ſo many Practitioners in Town and Country now ſend for it for their Patients, as finding it to be the only ſure and infallible Remedy that can be ſafely rely'd upon in thoſe Caſes. The Price of this Grand Medicine is 6 s. a Pot, ſeal'd up, with a Book of Inſtructions, highly neceſſary to be read by all Perſons whoever were afflicted with any Diſorder of the Seminal Veſſels or neighbouring Parts.

Note, Mr. Radford is removed from againſt St. Clement's Church-Yard, to Mr. Eglinton's at the Golden Spectacles againſt the Eaſt-End of the New Church in the Strand, London; where now this fam'd Balſamic Electuary is only to be had. Ask only for a 6 s. Pot of Baiſamic Electuary. No Letters anſwer'd unleſs Poſt-paid.

ANTI-SIPHYLICON.

THE only ſhort and moſt infallible CURE in the Univerſe for the Venereal Diſeaſe from the ſlighteſt Infection to the moſt extreme and deplorable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Freſh Infections, call'd Claps, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever ſo ſevere, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and to as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relicks, on one Hand, or a ſeminal Gleet, or Weakneſs, to happen on the other.

And the moſt inveterate Degree of the French Illneſs, attended with nocturnal Pains, univerſal Breakings-out, and all other the moſt exſeparated Symptoms, are ſoon overcome by it, and effectually and much more ſafely cured than by Salivation, Inungation, or any other Method whatever, and in ſo eaſy and pleaſant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occaſioning any Inconvenience, as loudly to beſpeak it the only appoſite Remedy, or true Venereal Antidote in the World, and this ſome Thouſands have, to their great Joy, experienced.

It is pleaſant to take, occaſions no Sickneſs or Diſorder, nor requires Confinement, but may be taken, and the Cure be accompliſhed, without the Knowledge of the neareſt Friend.

Thoſe who ſuſpect they have received an Injury may, by only a Doſe or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehenſions; for it ſuffers no lurking Venom to lie hid in the Body, but wholly extirpates it, Root and Branch, in a gentle, eaſy, and effectual Manner.

All ſuch, likewiſe, as doubt they have ſome remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may, by a few Doſes of it, entirely free themſelves from all Suſpicions of that Kind; for it admits of no Foulneſs, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and, on that Account, in all Scorbutick, Scrophulous, and even Leprous Eruptions, or Foulneſſes of the Skin, or glandulous Swellings, and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Doſe than any other Medicine, yet known, can by ten.

The Price of this moſt noble Anti-Siphylicon is but ſix Shillings a Pot, which, conſidering its extraordinary Efficacy, one Pot only being ſufficient, in moſt Caſes, to accompliſh the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is ready ſealed up, with a Book of Inſtructions, by the Peruſal of which all Perſons who were ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Diſeaſe may perfectly underſtand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poiſon is entirely rooted out of their Bodies.

Note, Mr. Radford is removed from againſt St. Clement's Church-yard, to Mr. Eglinton's at the Golden Spectacles againſt the Eaſt-End of the New Church in the Strand, London, where now the Grand Anti-Siphylicon is only to be had. Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy. No Letters anſwer'd, unleſs Poſt-paid.

The moſt wonderful cleanſing and ſtrengthning Drops for all Sorts of Gleets, and Seminal Weakneſſes and Imbecilities of the Generative Parts and Faculties, preventing Miſcarriages in Women; and to cleanſe and ſtrengthen the Reins, Kidnies and Bladder, cure weak Backs, Stranguries, Gravel, and Stoppage of the Urine, and for which it has gained ſuch Repute, that near 20000 Bottles have been ſold ſince April 1734, that they were firſt publiſh'd.

THESE incomparable Drops, which for the aboveſaid Diſorders are not to be equall'd in the whole Art of Medicines were preſcrib'd by the late Dr. Ratcliffe, for a certain noble Lord, who for a long Time had been vex'd with an old obſtinate Gleet and Weakneſs, of which he was cured by them in a few Days, beyond all Expectation, after he had been harraſs'd with Electuaries, Boluſſes, Pills, Potions, Injections, and a hundred other Medicines, for many Months together in vain.

The Apothecary who prepared them for him according to the Doctor's Preſcription (which he has ſtill upon his File) has made Uſe of them ever ſince to Numbers of People in the very worſt of Gleets, ſeminal and genital Imbecilities and Infertilities, Pains in the Back and Reins, Diſorders of the Urine and Gravel, &c. with the utmoſt Succeſs and Safety; as alſo in all Weakneſſes from Strains, as well as Venereal Relicks, exceſſive Coition, Self Pollution, ſeminal Emiſſions in Sleep, Falls, Blows, Wrenches, and the like, in both Sexes.

And as they have never once failed him, even in Caſes thought to be incurable, he now, for general Good, has made them publick: And that the meaner Sort of People might partake of the Benefit of ſo divine a Remedy as well as the Rich, he has put them up in Bottles of but 3 s 6 d each, tho' for the Excellency of their Effects they are worth their Weight in Gold, more eſpecially as one Bottle of them generally cures, even in the moſt draining Gleets, and grievous Relaxations and Weakneſſes of the Seminals and Genitals, as alſo of the Back and Reins, that are.

Nor can there be prepared, by any Art or Skill, a more cleanſing and healing, or a more ſtrengthening and invigorating Medicine, or one that can more effectually cure Impotency, or promote Fertility, than this, as every one that but once tries it will ſay, by their ſoon finding the Difference between this and other Remedies; for it will do more in one Day towards reſtoring in theſe Weakneſſes than any others can in ten, and is of ſo corroborating a Nature that it may be entirely rely'd upon for curing perfectly and firmly, without Fear of Relapſe, even in the tendereſt Conſtitutions, which can hardly be ſaid of any other Medicine; and it is withal ſo elegantly pleaſant to the Palate, and ſo agreeable to the Stomach that the niceſt Perſon is delighted with it.

Mr. Weſt, Goldſmith, who us'd to ſell theſe Drops being dead, they are now Sold only by his Son-in Law, Mr. Johnſon, a Baker, at the Seven Stars, in Vere-ſtreet, near Clare-Market, ſealed up, with Directions, for any Meſſenger upon asking only for a Bottle of Drops and paying 3 s 6 d.

The True Cordial QUINTESSENCE of VIPERS, the moſt Noble and Grand Preparation in the whole Materia Medica, for the real, ſubſtantial Cure of Impotency in Men, and Barenneſs in Women; and is vaſtly preferable to Viper Wine, or any other Preparation of Vipers whatever, as being replete with the full and whole Virtues of them.

A Few Drops of it only, gives ſuch a generous Warmth, and ſo exceedingly delights the Vital and Animal Spirits, Senſes, and Nerves, as ſoon to ſhew what it will do, upon a little Continuance of it; for it not only promotes, and prompts to a Deſire, but alſo furniſhes proper Matter, for the Support and Eſtabliſhment of a true laſting Inclination and Power.

By this Means it anſwers the End as well of Food as Phyſick; nor is there any thing in Nature beſides, that can in that Reſpect come up to it conſidering that it univerſally nouriſhes and reſtores in all the Declenſions of Deſire and Vigour, without the leaſt forcing the Veſſels, or ſtimulating the Parts, as moſt other Medicines for theſe Purpoſes do: And tho' it be a Maxim in Phyſick, that SINE CERERE & BACCHO FRIGET VENUS, this, in itſelf, is ſo ſufficiently nutritious as to want no Aſſiſtance that Way; not but it muſt be allowed, that good Eating and Drinking with it, cannot but in ſome Degree, at leaſt as an Auxiliary contribute to its Efficacy.

Nor does it only furniſh Matter and create Deſire, but alſo true Power (as it braces up and corroborates the Teſtes) and gives an elaſtick Springineſs to the Muſculi Erectores Penis in Men, and corrects, cleanſes, and comforts the Uterus, or Womb, in Women, the Lankneſs and Laxity of the former, and the Foulneſs, Coldneſs, or Obſtruction of the latter, being more the Cauſe of Impotency or Infertility, in theſe Sex, and Indifferency or Sterility in the other than any Thing elſe beſides; and that it is Balſamick, and greatly Reſtorative, is confirmed by long Experience, and we have many Inſtances in Phyſical Writings, of Perſons arriving to a healthful old Age, as well as recover'd from deplorable Decays and Weakneſſes, by a continued Uſe of the common Preparations of Vipers, which this Quinteſſence, by being of vaſtly more Efficacy, brings about in a Quarter of the Time, and with the Tenth Part of the Quantity.

Thoſe who but once try it, will ſo pleaſantly experience it nutritive quickening Properties, in exhilerating the Heart, reviving the Spirits, comforting the Vitals, circulating the Juice, and recreating and renovating, as it were the whole Man, that they will never be without it; for it is ſuch a preſent Help, in Time of Need, as that on the taking then but a Doſe or two more of it than ordinary, it will ſo inſtantaneouſly animate the dull inactive Spirits, and rouze up and actuate the ſluggiſh enfeebled Faculties, in both Sexes, as to excite and capacitate where it could hardly be expected, and at the ſame Time ſeldom fails to render that conjugo Intercourſe Prolifick. Price Half a Guinea the Bottle.

Mr. Weſt, Goldſmith, who us'd to ſell theſe Bottles, being lately dead it is now Sold only by his Son-in-Law, Mr. Johnſon a Baker, at the Seven Stars in Vere-Street, Clare-Market, ſealed up, with Directions (for any Meſſenger) upon asking for only a Bottle of Quinteſſence.

For the Immediate Cure of BARRENNESS in WOMEN tho' of many Years Continuance, and proceeding from what Cause soever,

And also of IMPOTENCY in MEN, however occasion'd, or of ever so long Standing,

The Famous and Inestimable PROLIFICK ELIXIR.

The highest, richest, and most powerful Cordial in Nature, is recommended,

BEING the only true and Infallible Cure for Barrenness in Women, and Impotency in Men in the Universe, and which at once accomplishes without the least Trouble, even after all other Remedies have fail'd, as Thousands have experienced, and that by promoting the cheerful Curricle of the Blood and Juices, raising all the Fluids from their languid depressed State, to one more florid and sparkling; opening all Obstructions, fortifying the Nerves, encreasing the Animal Spirits, restoring a Juvenile Bloom, and evidently replenishing the crispy Fibres of the whole habit, with a generous Warmth and balmy Moisture, and thereby invigorating it to such a Degree, as not to be imagin'd, but by those who have experienced how exceedingly and suddenly it renovates, recruits and powerfully strengthens all the Animal Faculties, and Generative Powers in both Sexes. It inforces a bright lively Disposition banishes Melancholy, and inspires Mirth and Gladness of Heart beyond Expression.

Abundance of Ladies, who for several Years were deem'd incurable Barren, have after twice taking it, conceived and became Fruitful, and great Numbers of Gentlemen, who by fast living or otherwise, had render'd themselves incapable of Procreation, have soon been enabled by it to propagate their Species, insomuch, that very many illustrious Families, who, for want of Children, were almost inconsolable, are now blest with happy Issue, and are (under Providence) indebted to this Great Medicine for their Heirs.

It rectifies all Disorders of the Stomach, creates an Appetite, procures a good Digestion, and in all Weakness of Body, or Decay of Constitution of any Kind, is a most infallible Restorative, and even seems to keep back the Effects of Old Age it self.

It is to be taken but a few Drops at a Time, has a very fine Flavour, is pleasant to the Palate, Cordial to the Stomach, and can be had only at the Gentlewoman's at the Two Blue Posts in Haydon Yard in the Minories at 5s. a Bottle, with Directions.

The only short and infallible Cure for that reigning Disease the SCURVY, and all Scorbutick Humours, tho' arrived to the highest or most inveterate Degree, or of ever so many Years standing, and that without any sensible Evacuation, or the least Purging, which, by an unaccountable Mistake, is generally advised, altho' always found rather to encrease and confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

By the so much fam'd and most pleasant Chymical DROPS.

WHICH, without the least Trouble, Confinement, or any Disorder whatever, doth at once strike at the true Cause of the Scurvy, and entirely destroy it, and all Scorbutick Humors and Effects, Root and Branch, so as never to return again, as many Thousands of both Sexes have experienced, and as all who take them in Three Days Time are convinced; for they almost instantly alter the morbid State of the Juices, purify the Blood, sweeten all the Fluids, cleanse them from Impurities, and directly clear the whole Habit from all Spots Blotches, black and blue Marks, Itchings, foul Eruptions or Breakings out, Weakness of the Limbs, languid Heaviness of the whole Body wandering Pains, Weakness of the Back, and all the vast Variety of Symptoms by which the Scurvy imitates and often has conceal'd under the Appearance of the Rheumatism, and many other Distempers.

And for strengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, causing a regular and easy Digestion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Disorders of the first Passages, (whence proceed Head Achs, Vapours, and other Indispositions) no Bitters, nor any other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them, insomuch that besides infallibly curing the Scurvy, in all its Shapes and Appearances they assuredly and directly cure the Green-Sickness in Virgins, Worms, of all Kinds, in Young or Old, and almost all other Chronick Diseases, which are chiefly occasioned by Indigestion and flatulent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and certainly prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Diseases.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Restorative, strengthen and clean the whole Machine, and as soon as taken, make the Patient pleasantly lightsome, brisk and vigorous to Admiration, and are good for all Sorts of Persons, to preserve as well as to procure a sound and healthful State of Body.

But the great Reputation these so much fam'd and most pleasant Chymical DROPS have so universally gain'd among Persons of Rank, for their suddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scorbutick Humors, and other Chronick Diseases, in such an easy and agreeable Manner, have occasioned many to imitate them, some under the same, and others under other Names; be careful therefore not to be deceived, but be sure to have the Right, which, by the Author's special Appointment, are to be had, only at the Gentlewoman's at the two blue Posts in Haydon Yard in the Minories, at 3s. 6d a Bottle, with Directions.

For the VENEREAL DISEASE.

THE shortest, safe, and regular Cure, this Day in the World, from the slightest Infection to the most inveterate Degree of it, by a Medicine as pleasant to take, and as easy in its Operation as it is effectual in its Cure; so that the unfortunate Patient gets suddenly and surprizingly well, without Distaste to his Palate, the least Disorder of Body, or any Confinement whatever? This is that great Remedy, now so well known and long experienced to be truly infallible, and to the Grand ANTI-SYPHILICON that Radcliffe and Garth used to say would totally extirpate the Venereal Disease from the Face of the Earth, were it but universally known, and properly taken. Fresh Infections, call'd Claps, with all their cruel attendant Symptoms, it presently cures; and if taken in Time, even prevents their taking Place. It is a safe, gentle, and pleasant Family Purge, even for Children as well as grown Persons, in all Cases where Purging is necessary; nor can the deepest Scurvy, Rheumatism, Gout, Evil, or Leprosy, stand before it, but are pleasantly cured and thoroughly extirpated by it, as well as the highest and most inveterate State of the continued Venereal Disease; which, with all its most raging Symptoms, it soon eradicates, restoring Health, Strength, and Vigor to the Body. Those who once take it, will never have Recourse to any Thing else. One Pot in most Cases is sufficient for a Cure.

Price 6s. a Pot, sealed up with a Book of Instructions, by which all Persons may fully understand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is rooted out of their Bodies. Note, Mr. Radford is removed from against St. Clement's Church Yard, to Mr. Eglinton's at the Golden Spectacles against the East-End of the New Church in the Strand, London, where now this Grand Anti Syphilicon is only to be had. Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy. No Letters answered unless Post-paid.

To Persons of either Sex,

Afflicted with any Species of the PALSY, or other Nervous Decays.

NEVER were NERVOUS DISEASES, PALSIES, and PARALYTICK DISORDERS so frequent as of late they have been, nor have the usual Remedies been found adequate to these pertinacious Distempers: This occasioned a Physician, who employed his Thoughts much concerning them, to adapt a Medicine, a Sovereign Elixir peculiar to, and effectual for the Palsy, and all other Nervous Complaints now reigning, which after he has experienced on vast Numbers of Persons of both Sexes, and always with surprizing Success even to an infallibly to cure by it the Palsy, and all Paralytick Effects and Nervous Disorders, he permitted it to be made publick for a general Good; that so those labouring under these miserable Ailments might know where to meet with a safe and most certain Cure, which it accomplishes in so short a Time, and with such Ease and Pleasure (a few Drops of it being a Dose, highly agreeable to the Palate, and comforting to the Stomach and Bowels) as is almost incredible to relate.

But the taking one Bottle of it only demonstrates its prodigious Efficacy to every one, and the Patients soon finds all Numbness, Deadness, and Shaking, or Resolution of the Nerves, as well as all convulsive, cramp-like, or painful Contractions of them, vanish and return no more, and this, though these Diseases have been of many Years standing, and whether occasioned by long Illness, fast Living, hard drinking, or any other Cause; for it performs all that can be wished for in Nervous Cases, creates an Appetite, expells Wind, rectifies the Digestion, occasions laudable Chyle, attennuates the Blood and Juices, causes a free and regular Circulation of 'em thro' the Capillary Vessels, revives and increases the Spirits, warms, comforts, strengthens, and replenishes the Brain and whole Nervous System, hence the Sinews, Tendons, Ligaments, and all the enfeebled Parts are invigorated, the Limbs restored to their pristine Steadiness and Strength; and the Palsy and all Paralytick Disorders and Nervous Decays suddenly cured by it, to the Admiration of the Patients themselves, and all about them.

This sovereign and incomparable Elixir is permitted to be sold only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Cross Keys and Star below the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, London, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with printed Directions at large.

The So-much Fam'd HYPO-DROPS.

WHICH in a few Days infallibly cure Hypochondriack Melancholy in Men, and the Vapours in Women, so as never to return again, be they ever so severe, or of many Years standing, and even after all other Remedies have prov'd ineffectual; and that by immediately striking at the very Root or true Cause, as well as remedying the Effects, of those perplexing Maladies and all their Variety of Symptoms, by which they mimick, by Turns, almost all the Diseases poor Mortals are afflicted with, and have their Rise from a depraved Appetite, vicious Ferment in the Stomach, and Indigestion of Food, whence proceed Crudities and flatulent or windy Disorders in the first Passages, ill Fumes, sour Belchings, Cholick, and Uneasiness in the Bowels, which Crudities offend the Nerves, and, by Consent of Parts, affect the Head, and produce sometimes Giddiness, Dimness of Sight, confused Thoughts, pertinacious Watchings, troublesome Sleep, Frights, groundless Fears, and the deepest Melancholy, with direful Views and terrible Apprehensions; at other times, Fits, flushing Heats, Reachings, Faintness, Lowness and Sinking of Spirits and Palpitation of the Heart, Startings, Tremblings and Twitchings in the Limbs and other Parts, with many convulsive Disorders, sharp Pains, fix'd or wandering, Pain and Weakness in the Back, and other almost innumerable and grievous Symptoms, which miserably afflict vast Numbers of both Sexes.

All which Symptoms in their sharpest Paroxysms, these so much fam'd and most pleasant Drops, (which are Chymically prepar'd from the most valuable Specificks in the Mineral, Vegetable, and Animal Kingdoms, and exalted to the highest Degree of Perfection possible) instantly quell, and at the same time annihilate their real Cause, directly bringing the Stomach into right Order, creating a good Appetite, rectifying the Digestion, occasioning laudable Chyle, and, of course, good Blood, Plenty of calm, free, and chearful Spirits, a regular Circulation of all the Fluids, and Strength of Nerves; so that both Cause and Effects of Melancholy and Vapours, are thoroughly removed by them, almost on the Spot, as the many Thousands of both Sexes they have perfectly cured, evince.

Whoever takes them for three Days only, will be sensible they are absolutely to be depended upon for an effectual and lasting Cure, and certain it is, that no Medicine upon Earth can equal them; be careful therefore to have the right Drops, which are to be had only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Cross-Keys and Star below the Royal Exchange, in Cornhill, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with Directions, at large.

Concerning Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses of all Kinds.

ALL judicious Physicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure than Stubborn Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses whether occasion'd by, too severe purging for Venereal Injuries, violent Strains, Pollutio sui, or any other Cause whatever; and that they are dangerous in their Consequences, as well as difficult to cure, is as certain since they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infeeble the whole Nervous System, often bring on Hectick Heats, a Tabes Dorsalis, or Consumption of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Consumptions which frequently terminate in Death itself.

All such therefore who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old stubborn Gleets, Seminal Effusions, Involuntary Emissions, excessive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakness of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Diabetis, Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Water, would doubtless be glad to meet with a certain, safe and speedy Cure, which they may assuredly may, by the taking only a small Quantity of a transcendent Balsamick Restrictive Electuary, now published for a general Good, after having for many Years in private Practice been experienced never once to fail perfectly curing the most stubborn Gleets known, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble; as also all other Weaknesses of the Back, Reins, Seminal Vessels and Urinary Passages, which it almost instantly cures, bringing to rights and restoring all those Parts and Passages to their natural Tone and pristine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doses of it only.

This transcendent Balsamick Restrictive Electuary is neither disagreeable to take, nor occasions the least Disorder, but is a wonderful Restorative in all Weakness and Decay of Constitution of any Kind, and particularly strengthens the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Vessels, to an immense Degree, insomuch that in any Debility of them, one Dose of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out; and all Persons fatigued with Gleets or Seminal Weaknesses of any Sort, or Weaknesses of the Urinary Vessels, who take it, will in three Days time find it so very effectual, that they will be most agreeably surprised at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly accomplish such a safe, speedy and perfect Cure of such difficult Maladies, as Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses are, as this Great Remedy truly and directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been try'd in vain; too much cannot be said in Praise of it, and this all who ever took it for any of the above-mention'd Purposes, have readily declared.

The Price is but 6s. a Pot, altho' for its absolute Efficacy, one Pot alone being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish a Cure, worth ten times as much, and is ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, which whomsoever carefully reads will be complete Master of his own Case, and perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakness he is afflicted with succeeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignity of the Foul Disease is intirely extirpated or not.

Note, Mr. Radford is removed from against St. Clement's Church-Yard, to Mr. Eglinton's at the Golden Spectacles, against the East-End of the New-Church in the Strand, London, where now this Balsamic Electuary is only to be had. Ask only for a 6s. Pot of Balsamick Electuary. No Letters answer'd, unless Post-paid.
